- 147 Gibbon, Charles. The life of George Combe, author of "The constitution of Man.": in two vols. London: MacMillan & Co., 1878:-Vol. I: pp. xvi + 335 + frontispiece (+ 36 publisher's catalogue); Vol. II: pp. x + 404 + frontispiece + facsimile of Combe's writing (+ 3 publisher's catalogue). Ex-library (labels on front, no stamps), large 8vo, in brown cloth, boards ruled and decorated in blind, spines lettered in gilt. VOLUME I: has severe damp damage at the front of the book. Both cloth and pastedown of the upper board are heavily stained and puckered. The staining of the prelims reduces rapidly so that early in the text only the fore-edge margins are affected, and this decreases until the stains fade out completely about half way through the book. The gathering of pages up to p.vi is detached. At p.vii, there is c.1” hole in the page due to damp adhesion, losing part of the synopsis of Chapter IX (the synopsis is repeated at p.177). At the back, the free endpaper is partially stuck to the pastedown, and there is some damp staining to the cloth of the lower board. The spine is salvageable but is rather dulled, has a central crease and the ends are showing wear. VOLUME II: Boards discoloured from damp towards the fore-edge. Remains of library label on upper board. Damp adhesion damage to endpapers and small splits at hinges. Staining to corners of initial and final leaves, but body of text is very good. Spine ends frayed, boards firm. Rather a wrecked set, but could benefit from a rebind. Ref. RC/238.

Phrenological Charts, Readings, Posters & Ephemera

330 (Anon). A postcard with serrated edges bearing phrenological Christmas greetings: showing a phrenological head with the various organs cut into flaps which can be lifted to reveal humorous drawings. The head is set against a maroon background and beneath it the following four lines of verse in gold lettering: Herewith I send A HEAD with wondrous BUMPS, Tho' much I trust 'twill not give you the Jumps -With it accept my hopes, in biggest LUMPS, That CHISTMAS JOYS for you will turn up Trumps. The flaps are all present and fit quite tightly closed like jigsaw pieces, some showing a little wear, but that for 'Tune' is almost detached and needs repair. There is a narrow 3.5cm pale brown coffee(?) stain below the ear. Written on the back: 'Arthur (Dr. Pangloss £. s. d. Ass.) from Ben. Christmas 1897.' Card was evidently formerly stuck down and has papery material adhering to the back. The sort of novelty one would expect to be worn to bits. Generally clean and a surprising survivor. VG-

331 (Anon). Two undated handwritten phrenological head readings, c. 1910, of:-
1. Miss Blagden, pp. 12, glued at the spine, in hand-titled paper wraps.
2. Mr Tredgett, pp. 12, glued at the spine, in hand-titled paper wraps.
Both are fluently written and in good order, though that of Miss Blagden has some soiling and creasing to the covers. VG.

332 Blackburne, J. The Phrenological Sketch of Miss Elworthy by J. Blackburne - Wellington, March 1870. Single plain folded sheet forming 4 quarto sides, handwritten and signed in brown ink in a rather sprawling hand to use all sides: slightly faded, creased and soiled. G+.

333 Brown, Thomas. Phrenological chart and register by Thomas Brown, Practical Phrenologist, Hexham. A phrenological chart for Florence, 29 Aug '72, Morecambe, completed in ink. Loose sheet, 44.5 cm x 28 cm. Fairly clean, with two closed tears and a heavy crease across centre. Edges creased, with some chips, affecting only ruled edges, and partially made good. G.

334 Combe, George. Calotype portrait of Combe from the albums of David Octavius Hill and Robert Adamson, vol. 1, no. 87 - here reproduced by the National Portrait Gallery at the time of the Hill/Adamson exhibition in 1973, from a carbon print made by Jessie Bertram in 1916. Good fresh copy. 21.5 cm x 16.5 cm. See also Items 51 - 67, 147-148 & 430. Ref.RC/238.

335 Cohen, Gustavus. Three Posters:

335 i: Large poster, 57 x 44 cms, pale buff paper printed in red, with 'Cohen' in bold capitals: "Temperance Hall, Horsedje Street, Oldham / for a short time only / commencing Sunday 16th October, 1892 / Herr Cohen / The Celebrated Phrenologist and Medical Electrician / will give a series of highly popular / Lecture Entertainments..." - giving a schedule of his lectures, and advertising electrical experiments, private phrenological examinations and Sunday services. Quite bright and clean, with central fold creases up and across with small closed tears, and some fraying to the left edge. VG-

335 ii: Large poster, 89 x 57cms, consisting of a large reddish-brown three-quarter profile of Gustavus Cohen done from a chalk drawing and looking like a Victorian Christ (and with his printed autograph), with the legend Herr Cohen - every evening at 8 printed boldly in black. Printed by G. Whitehead & Sons, Lithos, Huddersfield. With fold creases and corner pinholes, but generally clean, with a 2" chip to the left edge (losing no print). Billposter's scrawl on back. VG.

335 iii: Paper banner, 15 x 57cms, proclaiming Herr Cohen to-night at 8 in bold black capitals. Some offsetting, a central fold, and two small punctures, otherwise very good. Billposter's scrawl on back. VG. Ref.RC/231. See also Items 44 -45 & 428.

336 Craig, E. T. Phrenological chart, of the propensities, moral sentiments, and intellectual faculties of the human mind. London, for the author, n.d. Large landscape quarto printed chart on card consisting of a small phrenological illustration with numbered faculties and an extensive explanatory key. Both illustration and key have been coloured in with watercolour to make cross-reference easier. Slightly foxed and soiled. VG-. [Ref.RC/262].

- 337 Fowler & Wells Co. Illustrated descriptive catalogue of new and standard works on phrenology, physiognomy, ethnology, physiology, psychology, health, magnetism, education, etc. New York: Fowler & Wells Co., n.d. pp.64, illustrated. Tall 8vo, stapled booklet. Contents clean and fresh. Staples rusted but holding. Covers generally clean, browning a little, with a few small chips and splits at the spine. Written on front cover: "You will find some books named in this catalogue that will be of interest to you. Look it over carefully". VG.
- 338 Gibbons, Mr. J., Phrenologist and Mesmerist: Analysis of the cerebral development of Miss Baird. 'J & W Bayne, Printers', but no date, location, or publisher (appears mid-Victorian). Single sheet broad quarto phrenological chart, well printed, and completed in an elegant hand. Slightly soiled, with several folding creases: very little wear to edges. G+.
- 339 Hedderly, Frances. Phrenological analysis from measurements taken on 2nd February 1973 of Denis M. Gahagan, born 21. 4. 36. Clean blue carbon of ten typed quarto pages, stapled at the corner, unsigned, dated March 1973. Slightly creased across the centre, otherwise very fresh. VG+. See also Item 156. Ref.RC/525.
- 340 James, Madam & Son. Phrenological chart: being a chart of mental philosophy and a synopsis of phrenology. Philadelphia, n.d. This is a black and white chart with a number of illustrations. 62 x 51.5cm, folding down to 17 x 13cms. With wear and extra creasing along some folds, some fraying to edges, and a few foxing spots: otherwise clean. G+.
- 341 Miles, E. & Mrs. L. Phrenology and the moral influence of phrenology: arranged as 40 cards illustrative of the system. The Casket of Knowledge, inscribed and dedicated by gracious permission to their Royal Highnesses, The Duchess of Kent and the Princess Victoria by their Royal Highnesses most obliged and humble servant. London: Ackermann & Co., 1835, 5th edition. This comprises a set of 41 pocket-size cards in a leather box: - the first card shows a white phrenological bust in relief against a green background with numbering of the faculties; the second contains the author's dedication, with, on the obverse, three phrenological illustrations showing the grouping of the faculties; the next three in order give (i) a survey of contour, (ii) classification of the faculties, and (iii) definitions; the remaining 36 each describe a mental faculty, with names in German and English. Box in the form of a small clasped gilt-ruled morocco-bound book (12.5 x 8 x 2.3cms) with titled and decorated spine and upper board, with three edges representing the gilt edges of the text block. Upper board is detached, the leather hinge torn. Box lined with pink paper, that inside the lid serving as an ornate title page, that in the base reproducing the publishers' puff. Original silk drawing ribbon present but almost torn through. Ref.RC/772.
- 342 [Miles, E. & Mrs. L.] A first card from a set similar to item 341, showing a white phrenological bust with numbered faculties and with decorative curlicues above, in relief against a cream background. Printed on the back with a decorative surround: Phrenology and the moral influence of phrenology: arranged on 40 cards illustrative of the system. Ackermann, London, n.d. Some light soiling to background, otherwise VG. Ref.RC/772.
- 343 Piper, H. A. V. A double foolscap handwritten chart headed: - "Comparative chart of various Phrenological Examinations". There are 3 examinations recorded: - 24th April 1903, 19th June 1908, and 2nd December 1909. Loose sheet. Columns ruled in red, data completed in ink, with a few notes in pencil. Central folds in both directions, tearing slightly, with some other fraying and small closed tears to edges, particularly at the top. G. See Items 20, 119, 192 -194, 232, 234 & 346 for delineations by Blackford, O'Dell, Severn, and others.
- 344 Regan, John P. B. Character chart (scale 1 to 7) of Mr Denis Gahagan. Three foolscap pages, copies of a typewritten form, filled in by hand, dated 24/5/72. Signed J.B. Regass(?) and stamped Puto of London. Folded laterally: clean and in good order. VG.
- 345 Rumball, J. Q. A 3 page signed but undated handwritten phrenological delineation. Single folded sheet forming 4 sides 22.5 x 18.5cms, written in brown ink, with no preamble. With fold creases, but in quite good order. VG. [Ref. RC/984].

346 Severn, J. Millott. Phrenological and psychological delineation of the character of Mr. Herbert Allan Victor Piper. A duplicate in purple ink of a ten-page quarto typescript printed recto and clipped at the corner with a split pin. Signed by Severn in ink but not dated. Two lateral folds. In good order. VG. See Items 20, 119, 192 - 194, 232, 234 & 343 for other delineations and information. Ref.RC/1015.

347 Severn, J. Millott. A framed chart: Phrenology. Definitions of the Mental Faculties and Temperamental Conditions. Brighton, n.d. Consists of a phrenological profile drawing with numbered locations of faculties to which the text is the key. Printed in black, and very clean, with fold creases faint and ironed out, but with a spot of surface damage at the three points where the creases intersect. About 60 x 46cms, set in a bevelled white card mount (55.2 x 43cms internally) and glazed in a frame with simple rounded black 2cm wooden beading (externally 72 x 59cms): the hardboard backing is wired for hanging. The chart is VG+: mount and frame are in excellent condition. Ref.RC/1015. See items 215 - 239.

348 Vago, A. L. A framed Phrenological Chart. Published by A.L. Vago, and printed by Cassell, Petter & Galpin: London, n.d. Consists of a phrenological profile drawing with numbered compartments to which the text is the key, preceded by a few introductory paragraphs and followed by advertisements. The faculties are represented symbolically by a small scene in each compartment of the drawing, and these have been hand-coloured. The paper is brown - quite evenly so - and this may be the original colour. There are faintly visible folds, and a few closed tears. About 60 x 46cms, set in a bevelled white card mount (55 x 43cms internally) and glazed in a frame with simple rounded black 2cm wooden beading (externally 72.5 x 59cms): the hardboard backing is wired for hanging. The chart is VG: mount and frame are in excellent condition. Ref.RC/1147. See also Items 314 -317.

349 Wallace, Alfred R. A handwritten and signed post card addressed to J.E. Grundon Esq of Crouch End, London:- "Broadstone, Dorset July 19th, 1912: In reply to yours of March last, the best practical as well as scientific phrenologist I know is Mr. James Webb, 17 Olivier Road, Leyton. He will be glad to give you a delineation, if you make an appointment. See p. 430 & 432 of my "Wonderful Century". Yours truly Alfred R. Wallace." Upper corners rounded and knocked. Message face of card has a small smudge, otherwise clean. The address face of the card is partially browned as if singed, and there is a small patch of transparent gummed paper (like a stamp hinge) over the royal arms which are printed on the card between 'Post' and 'Card'. There is no trace of there having been a postage stamp or post mark. VG-. See also Items 464 & 465. Ref.RC/1161.

350 Wilson, Andrew. Large poster, 65 cm. x 102 cm, printed in black and red, advertising a lecture by Dr Andrew Wilson to Oldham Literary and Philosophical Society at 8 o'clock on Wednesday 16th December, 1891 in the Town Hall, Oldham entitled Curiosities of brain action, as illustrated by dreams, mesmerism and ghost seeing; with limelight illustrations. Printed by Thos. Doran, Printer & Stationer, 99, Union Street, Oldham. Some splitting at fold creases, a little faint staining, a few small punctures, and a little fraying to one edge. Billposter's label and scrawl on back. Very good. [Ref.RC/1207].

Correspondence and Catalogues 1970s: Phrenology

352 A collection of correspondence from the 1970s between the compiler of this collection and various academics, practicing phrenologists, antiquarian booksellers and library and museum curators, as well as notes written up from interviews with two of the correspondents, all in relation to his then project, a Study of the Social History of Phrenology in Britain. Laid into a green folder in a buff card wallet.

The most substantial correspondence is that with Anthony A. Walsh: an enthusiastic sharing and exchange of information and ideas between 1971 and 1974. [*see also items 351 & 353]

353 Walsh, Anthony A. Bibliographia phrenologica. A bibliography of phrenologiana in the private collection of Dr. Walsh, compiled as of January 21, 1971. 55pp, wide quarto. Negative photostat sheets (white print on grey), printed recto, print often indistinct. Stapled into an orange card folder, front labelled and laminated, spine taped. G.

Ephemera: Advertisements, Leaflets, Cards, Receipts - Phrenology, etc.

354 A collection of ephemera relating to J. Millott Severn, L. N. Fowler and others:

354 i: About 20 items, mostly flyers and advertisements, but including a receipt and some handwritten material, some mounted, some laminated, presented (or in some cases merely stored) in the 12 transparent A4 toploading pockets of a fixed-leaf Nyrex album with stiff black plastic covers. Items generally VG, album Fine.

354 ii: Perhaps 40 items, again mostly flyers and advertisements, but including bookmarks, cards, envelopes, and a phrenological soap advertisement, mostly loose, but some in acid-free protective transparent envelopes, all in a buff A4 card wallet. Generally VG.
